1.2 The following definitions are used throughout this Manual:

A — Weight Shift Control Microlight

A microlight aircraft which control about all axes is achieved by shifting body weight to induce centre of gravity changes.

B — Three Axis Control Microlight

A microlight aircraft in which any seat is fixed to the fuselage structure. Control about the lateral axis is achieved by elevators or canard, about the longitudinal axis by ailerons, differential spoilers or wing warping and about the vertical axis by rudder.

C — Combined Control Microlight Aircraft

A microlight aircraft in which control of at least one axis is achieved by body weight or by an unusual or specialist control. Control about the other axis is conventional.

G — Rotorcraft

A microlight aircraft, which derives its lift in flight from unpowered rotating aerofoils.

H — Helicopter

A microlight aircraft, which derives its lift in flight from powered rotating aerofoils.

P — Powered Paraglider

A microlight aircraft which has a flexible wing with a power unit.

High Performance Microlights

Are defined as:

- (a) Microlight aircraft with 80 KT/s and greater cruise speed at 75% Power (Engine Manufacturers manual)
- (b) Microlight aircraft Type Accepted under CAR 103.203 using foreign certification acceptable to the Director with 80 KT/s and greater cruise speed at 75% Power (Engine Manufacturers manual)
- (c) Rotorcraft

Microlight Aircraft

An aircraft conforming to the definition in CAR Part 1.

Microlight Aircraft Floatplane

A microlight aircraft to which floats have been fixed for operating on the water.

7. Introduction

This Exposition is the property of, and is subject to the copyright of, Sport Aviation Corp. Limited. The Exposition shall be maintained in accordance with the guidelines laid down in the Exposition Control section.

This Exposition as a whole, or part of, may not be distributed in any form outside the Sport Aviation Corp. Ltd organisation.

If at any time sections of this Exposition are copied, then each page must be marked 'INFORMATION MAY NOT BE UP TO DATE, PLEASE REFER TO ORIGINAL'.

Nothing contained in this Exposition is to be construed as:

- (i) Relieving the individual of their responsibility to take any action considered necessary for the preservation of life, property, or any third party.
- (ii) Removing the right of any individual or persons to introduce additional procedures that may be required to suit local conditions.

8. Authority

1. Exposition Purpose

- 1.1 This Exposition has been produced to show conformity with Civil Aviation Rule Part 149, Aviation Recreation Organisations - Certification.
- 1.2 The policies and procedures implemented by SAC in the Exposition ensure that all activities are undertaken in accordance with the Civil Aviation Legislation.
- 1.3 The Policy, Procedures and general guidance contained in this Exposition has the approval of the Board of Directors of SAC.
- 1.4 The following activities will be carried out by SAC under this certificate:
 - (a) Training, examination, and certification of sport pilots operating under Part 103.
 - (b) Training, examination, and certification of sport aircraft Inspectors for aircraft operated under Part 103.
 - (c) Initial conformance checks on sport aircraft certificated under Part 103.
 - (d) Acceptance of modifications and repairs to sport aircraft under Part 103 pursuant to conditions in a separate Letter of Authorisation from the Director.
 - (e) Annual Condition Inspections on sport aircraft under Part 103.

2. Authority

- 2.1 This Exposition is issued by the Chief Executive Officer of SAC.
- 2.2 All amendments to this Exposition shall be done in accordance with procedures laid down in the Exposition.

3. Scope and Limitations of Authority

- 3.1 The Chief Executive Officer and Operations Officer of SAC hold the delegated authority from CAA to issue:

- (a) Flight Certificates
- (b) Annual Condition Inspection Documents

Note: Delegation holders may not exercise their powers of delegation on a certificate to a client they have been instructing. This is to prevent a conflict of interest occurring.

4. Conditions of Use

- 4.1 This Exposition will be made available to all persons within SAC and those persons acting on behalf of SAC.
- 4.2 All persons using this Exposition shall be fully conversant with, and comply with its requirements.
- 4.3 This Exposition is the property of SAC. It may not be copied or communicated, in whole or in part, to any person not authorised by written consent of the CEO.
- 4.4 Should anything in this Exposition be found to be contrary to Civil Aviation Legislation, the legislation will take precedence.
- 4.5 Sport Aviation Corp Ltd. retains the copyright of this Exposition.

9. Exposition Control

1. Presentation

This exposition contains information required for the certification of an organisation under Civil Aviation Rule Pt.149 and has nine sections 1 to 9.

The first seven sections have paragraphs and sub-paragraphs. The eighth section contains all the SAC standard forms. The ninth contains an Annex for the SAC Training School which conforms to CAR Part 141 .

Page numbers are on the top right hand side of each page along with the revision number and issue date on the left hand side.

Each Section has its own Table of Contents.

Sections 6 and 9 are broken down into Subsections to retain clarity.

2. Distribution

2.1 One copy of this exposition including one years free amendment service is available to any SAC client at the current published price in Section 1 - 12, thereafter an annual fee will be charged for the amendment service.

2.2 Notwithstanding 2.1, Section 9 will only be issued under the Chief Executive's authority to persons directly involved with the SAC Training School.

2.3 This exposition may be distributed in paper or electronic (CDROM) format as the recipient desires, each CDROM being identified by the amendment number and issue date.

It is also accessible via the internet on the SAC Website,
www.sportflying.co.nz

3. Amendment Procedures

3.1 A copy of the exposition is issued to each authorised person. The Secretary/Administrator holds a register identifying each exposition holder.

3.2 The exposition holder is required to incorporate all amendments promptly and in accordance with the instructions accompanying the amendments.

3.3 Where only part of the previous text has been amended, the alterations are indicated by a vertical line in the left margin.

3.4 The amendment status of this exposition may be checked for currency by comparing the last amendment number and date published shown in the Record of Amendments pages and the List of Effective Pages. The current Exposition is held on the SAC data base and is published live on the SAC website. (www.sportflying.co.nz)

3.5 Certain changes to the organisation require prior notification and approval by the Director to remain in compliance with Part 149. These are:

- (a) Change of Chief Executive;
- (b) Change of the listed senior persons;
- (c) Change of the holder or holders of any delegation made by the Director;
- (d) Change of the principal location(s) at which the activities may be carried out;
- (e) Change of the activities covered by the certificate;
- (f) Change of the procedures for personnel assessment and certification;
- (g) Change of procedures for organising Aviation Events.

3.6 Amendments not effecting changes requiring the Directors prior approval in 3.5 may be issued directly to exposition holders with a copy to CAA for their records.

3.7 The Board of Directors initiate and authorise amendments, the Company Secretary/Administrator organises the production and insertion of the amendments of the company copy and distribution of current copies to exposition holders as required. The current exposition will be made available via the SAC Website. (www.sportflying.co.nz)

3.8 This exposition shall be amended so as to remain a current description of SAC.
